SEARCH & RESCUE: Nine members from our Club took part in the recent Search & Rescue practice in the Central Ruahines. The two "missing" persons were found on the first day and set off to get lost again. On Sunday they were found twice more and so from the search point of view the practice was successful. The last find resulted in a rescue and we carried a man out of the bush on a stretcher.

The new radios were very successful, their lightness, long range and easy operation gave us all confidence in them. A very enjoyable weekend was had and our members were much better off at the end in knowledge of search technique and radio operation.

Congratulations to Vern Stout on his fine effort and initiative as Search Controller. Those on the search:- Vern Jensen, Keith Potter, Bruce Watson, Tony Morrison, Roger Clarke, Dennis Moore, Dennis Arnot, Ron Russell, Vern Stout (Search Controller).

RIVER CROSSINGS: How to estimate the risk of a river crossing. If the velocity x depth = more than 10ft./sec. - DON'T CROSS! If it = less than 10 you can most likely get across. Gauge velocity in ft./sec. by measuring a distance on the bank, then throwing a couple of sticks into the river and timing them to cover that distance. For example: if the velocity of the current works out at 3ft/sec/ and the depth of the river is 3 feet,  $3 \times 3 = 9$  and you should be able to get across. On the other hand, if the velocity is 4ft/sec. and the depth is 3 feet,  $4 \times 3 = 12$ , and in this case don't cross.

QUOTABLE QUOTE: "As a nation we are dedicated to physical fitness and we are parking our cars as close to the Sports Stadium as possible"

FOR INTELLECTUALS ONLY:

I wandered lonely and afraid
Through hosts of tangled leatherwood.
I wandered wondering why I wandered
And now play indoor bowls.
